

Corporate & Business Bank

Osborne Park, WA

Reception and Security

QPM knows that first impressions last.

The reception area incorporates a combination of modern, customer-friendly finishes. State of the art security systems are located behind the scenes, to look after the best interests of our clients.

The Boardroom

QPM knows how to get the most out of space.

Whether for entertaining future clients or conducting in-house meetings, the boardroom is a key element in the corporate realm. We combined stylish flexibility with high-class workmanship, quality finishes and furnishings for a flawless result.

The Office

QPM delivers on time and on budget.

"The professionalism shown by you, your team and the associated contractors made our move quite painless and thankfully seamless in terms of our delivery to our customers. I would be delighted to recommend your firm to any of your clients."

- Mark Bailey, State Manager, St George Bank Automotive Finance, April 2006.

The Facilities

QPM knows what you want.

The office environment features a combination of open-plan and enclosed work-stations, kitchen facilities and thoughtful storage. High quality appliances, cleanability and functionality in design encourage efficiency and high morale in the workplace.
